GOVERNOR BRAMLETTE'S Visit TO WASHINGTON.

Official Report of Its Results.

A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT.

[From the Frankfort Commonwealth, April 26.]

The annexed correspondence explains itself. The people of Kentucky will see how the interview invited by the Governor of this State, was received by Mr. Lincoln and Secretary Stanton for the citizens of this State. We commend the Governor's letter to our readers:

COMMONWEALTH OFFICE,
FRANKFORT, April 21, 1864.

Hon. Thos. E. Bramlette, Governor of Kentucky:

MY DEAR SIR—It will be remembered, by you that immediately after your return from Washington City about the 1st of this month, in an editorial article which then appeared in the Commonwealth, it was stated that your interview with the President and Secretary of War had been of a highly amicable and conciliatory character, and that, at an early date, the people of Kentucky would be officially advised of the objects and results of your mission to Washington.

I am aware that, after your return to Frankfort, and up to the time you left for Nashville, your condition of health was such as to prevent you from preparing the desired information to the people of Kentucky.

The many applications to me personally, for the results of your mission to Washington, have influenced me to ask that you will communicate that information through the columns of the Commonwealth, at your earliest convenience.

Yours truly,
A. G. HODGES.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
FRANKFORT, April 23, 1864.

Col. A. G. Hodges, Frankfort, Ky.:

SIR—On yesterday evening your note of 21st was handed to me.

The object of my mission to Washington, was to have the quotas of Militia called into service from Kentucky assigned upon the basis of enrollment, and not of population; and to obtain, prohibition to citizens of Kentucky against unauthorized raid or forcible interference of officers, soldiers and recruiting insects with the enslaved in Kentucky; and to have the enlistment and draft of slaves confined within the jurisdiction of the act of Congress for enlistment and draft, &c.

Upon presenting the facts, upon which these demands were made, to the President and Secretary of War, promptly decided that the demands were just and reasonable, and that everything that could be done to further my wishes, in these regards, should be done.

That most estimable and efficient officer, Col. J. B. Fry, Provost Marshal General, United States, was ordered to repair to Kentucky, and to see that the necessary instructions from the Secretary of War, and his own, should be carried out in good faith. He has strictly complied with the spirit of these instructions, and has given to Kentucky all the benefits which the law of the land, and the construction it has received from the Secretary of War, will possibly allow. Col. Fry has been, and is now, engaged in the discharge of his duties in this State. We commend the Governor's letter to our readers.

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

It appears pertinent to append to the foregoing correspondence the annexed letter from President Lincoln. The circumstances which elicited from the President the letter, are, as we understand them, as follows: The Union men of the Commonwealth, Col. Hodges, by invitation, accompanied Governor Bramlette, and Hon. Archie Dixon, on their recent visit to Washington, and to the Executive Mansion, when they had interviews with the President and Secretary of War.

At the close of the interview between President Lincoln and Gov. Bramlette, Col. Hodges, his friends, to fill the tender of Gov. Tates to the President. Let there be a rally which will put this force in the camps of resources in ten days. They cannot too soon be sent forward. Illinois has the disadvantage of some of her distant friends not having a Union System, but some of them have any number of her to send for the holy cause of the Union. Fill up the ranks.

Congress did a heavy stroke of business in legislation yesterday, to an extent that exceeded the most sanguine expectations. It has had both for the Abolition coats; whereupon, without any danger as to the former point, a measure was put upon its passage which the country will act with pleasure, providing for raising two forces for our self-preservation from the rebels for the Southern and self-preservation from the rebels for the North, for future. That is the way. Sophistry produces at the country by loyal men everywhere.

We would be the last to abridge the rights and privileges of the patriots of the gallant soldiery, but we find, after asking Admiral Porter where he got all that three-quarters of a million dollars worth of cotton sold at time yesterday at a board price? How easy the way to be so successful among the many thousands of men throughout Illinois, who will be proud to see him in Congress.

A characteristic and forcible letter of President Lincoln is given in another column—in reply to the Kentucky pressure representing Governor Bramlette. It is a powerful, lucid, and will do good in Kentucky in every place where they are still ready to "stand" in some respects this letter is one of the most remarkable ever given to the public by Mr. Lincoln.

Congress in its present zeal reminds us of the uncle who, having played all day, is forced to finish work and "do his stint" or get no supper. Some of our Congressmen will go supperless to bed in oblivion at 4 A. M., but we like their present diligence.

Governor Evans, of Colorado Territory, has issued proclamations for an election of delegates to a Constitutional Convention, on the first Monday of June, to frame a Constitution preparatory to admission into the Union.

In the Congressional district lately vacated by the death of the lamented Lovejoy, the convention of Princeton, Bureau county, assembled yesterday Hon. E. C. Ingersoll as candidate for Congress. Mr. Ingersoll will be elected. He is a War Democrat of the right stamp, who came out and proved his adhesion to the cause of the Union and Liberty in the early dawn of the great Awakening as to the cause of the rebellion. He is not one of those who wait to hear the sound "about lunch time," but has done his morning's work, and earned it. Mr. Ingersoll will boldly go on the stump in case, Mr. Ingersoll boldly go on the stump in case, Mr. Ingersoll boldly go on the stump in case, Mr. Ingersoll

WAR NEWS TODAY.

The public will learn with great pleasure that the rebel batteries at Pensacola have been silenced by the guns of Fort Pickens, and that the rebels have been driven from their position. The particulars of the affair will be found in another column. The rebels will not be likely to forget the lesson they have received, and will probably not attempt to repeat the experiment. Our troops have behaved with their usual gallantry, and have added another to the many instances of their superiority over the rebels. The rebels have been taught a lesson which they will not soon forget, and which will be of great benefit to the country. Let us hope that the rebels will be driven from every point they occupy, and that they will be taught that the only way to escape punishment is to lay down their arms and return to their allegiance.

The latest dispatches from Gen. McClellan's army announce that the rebels have been driven from Munson's Hill, and that our troops have taken possession of the position. This is a very important point, and its occupation by our troops will be hailed with great satisfaction by the people of the country. The rebels will be driven from every point they occupy in Virginia, and will be compelled to retire to Richmond, where they will be hemmed in by our troops, and will be compelled to surrender at discretion. The rebellion is rapidly drawing to a close, and the people will soon be relieved from the burden of taxation which it has imposed upon them. THE CITY.

"WHOM WILL HE DAMNING HIS BEYOND" is the theme of a new song, by T. M. Towle, unrivalled in its blither column by the publishers, Root & Cady. It is as the purpose, tender and effective.

CURIOUS.—The number of cows kept by Union milkmen is the talk of our city. All who are wise will secure their cows at 163 Lake street, in advance, as it costs no more, and will save disappointment.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Lyman Trumbull, United States Senator, is now in this city having been called home from the West by the illness in his family.

Adjutant General Fuller arrived at the Tremont House yesterday.

WARM WEATHER.—The water will be shut off in the West Division all west of Halsted street at 12 o'clock to-day, and in the South Division at 6 o'clock this evening. Families should supply themselves in time.

IF DISPOSED SELL YOUTHS.—The editor of the Democratic weekly grunter by the name of Wilson Chandler Eagle, brought from Idaho. He is a full sized bird and in good condition. He created quite a flutter.

DISMISSED.—The case of the People against William Johnson for adultry and open lewdness, which was to have been adjourned yesterday before Justice Brown, was, at the instance of the prosecutor, dismissed.

THE NEW CHIEF OF POLICE.—The newly appointed Police Commissioner, Wilfred Turrin, took the customary oath of office yesterday morning, at Police Headquarters, and formally took possession of the office of Chief of Police, which was vacated by Mr. Cook. William Wagner is the new Assistant, and Edward Gregory was appointed Police Sergeant. A Second Sergeant was not appointed. The police report for the last quarter was not presented at the meeting of the Board, but will be forthcoming and took his place as Secretary of the Board, C. J. Gilbert, Esq., having to deliver up the records to his keeping.

ASSAULT THURSDAY BY DEPUTY SHERIFF WATSON.—Prosser was yesterday served upon Deputy Sheriff William Wyman, at the suit of the Michigan Southern Railroad Company, to the amount of $5,000 in an action of trespass, arising out of a alleged unwarrantable assault. It will be remembered that upon an execution issued against L. B. Prosser, in favor of the Michigan Southern, for
